

GIORGIO PALAZZI - Film Lecturer SAE THAILAND

Giorgio was introduced to film making at an early age, producing short movies and participating to local film contests in Geneva, Switzerland. He joined SAE in 2005 as a Supervisor and Film Lecturer in Perth, and also taught as a guest lecturer in Auckland and Geneva. In 2009 he collaborated with leading production company Lux Vide in Rome, in the quality of Online Editor and Technical Troubleshooter. He was also officially trained on the Autodesk Smoke and Lustre workstations.

Giorgio successfully studied the Post Graduate Diploma in Film Production at the University of Auckland, participating to numerous self-funded projects in the quality of Director, 1st Assistant Director and Editor. He also holds a Graduate Diploma in Film Studies from Curtin University, a Bachelor of Arts in Film Making from Middlesex University and Certificate IV in Digital Film from SAE.
